

CLAHRC for Birmingham & Black Country

Professor Richard Lilford, CLAHRC Director

Collaborations for Leadership in Applied Health Research and Care

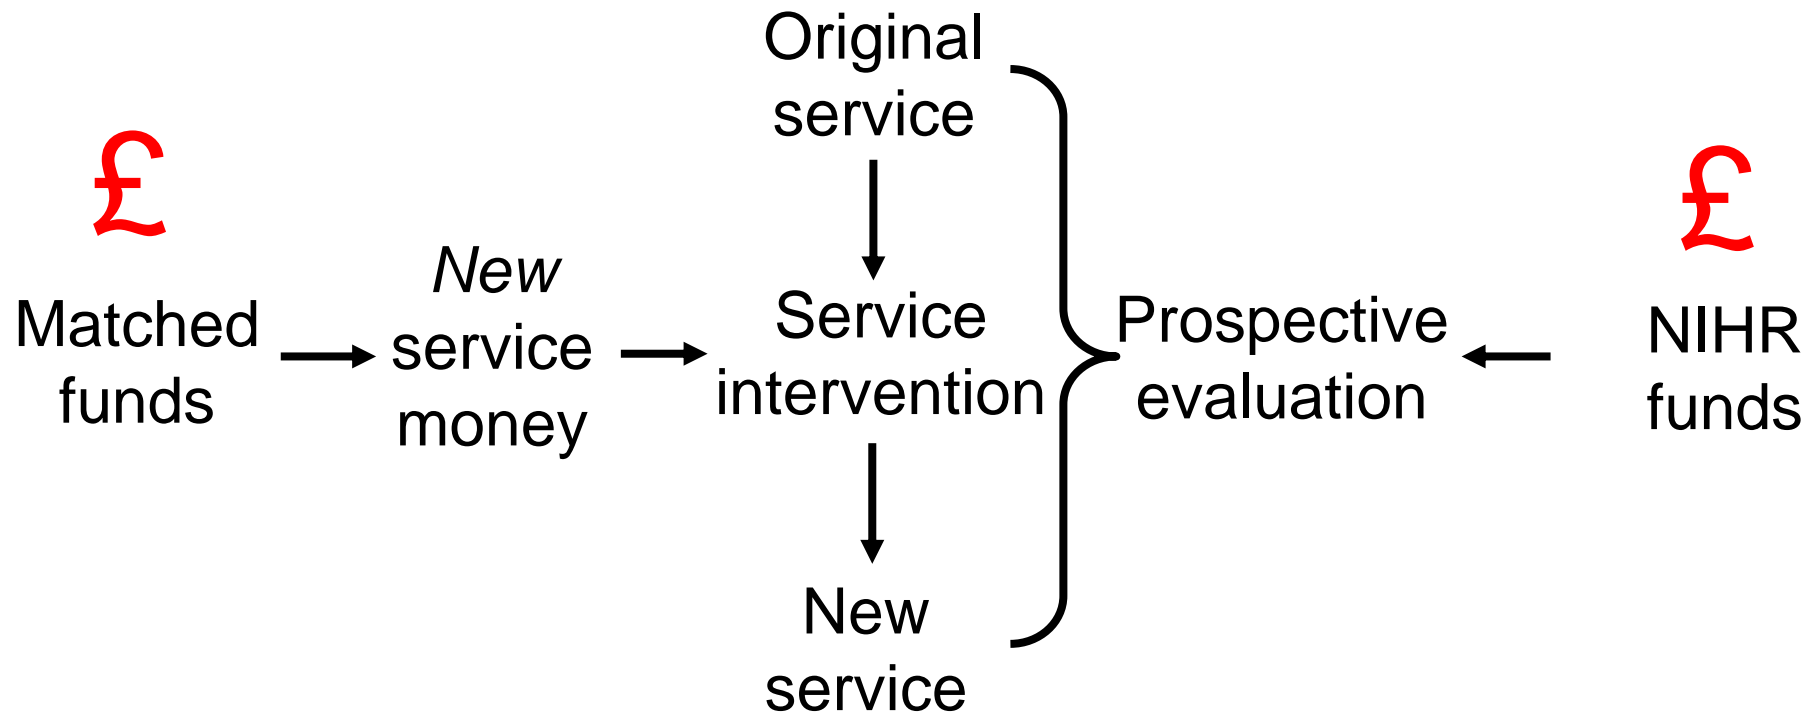

“Need to create a research friendly culture in NHS”

“A more positive culture of innovation to disseminate best practice beyond existing NHS ‘islands of excellence’”

Enabling the NHS to be a more effective partner in the translation of health research into routine practice

CLAHRC for Birmingham and Black Country

National Institute for Health Research

- Leeds
- South Yorkshire
- Manchester
- Nottinghamshire
- Leicester
- Cambridge
- NW London
- Peninsula

Partners

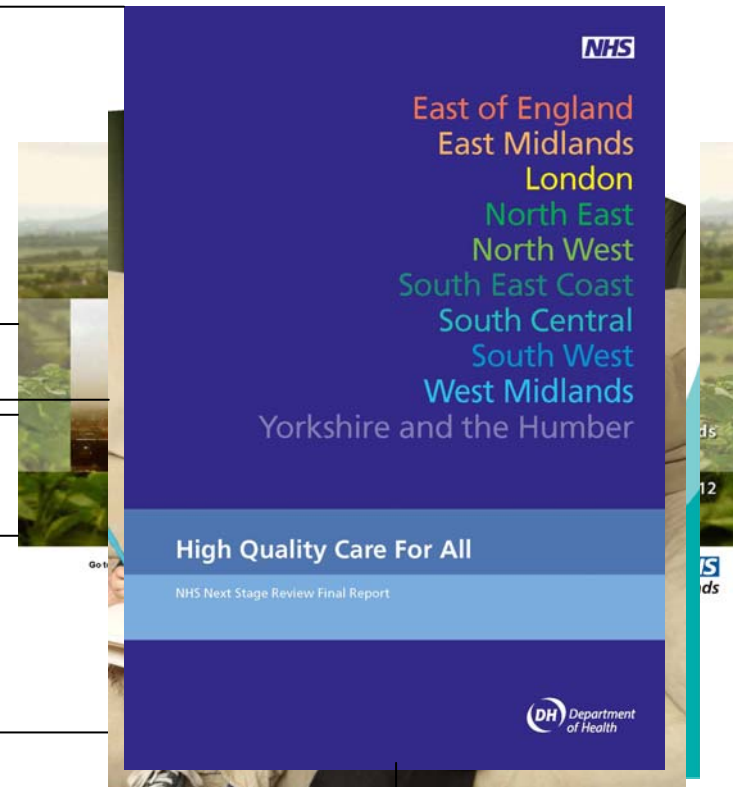

Cross Cutting Themes

- Theme 1: Service redesign
- Theme 2: Paediatric outreach
- Theme 3: Early diagnosis of psychosis
- Theme 4: Housing improvement
- Theme 5: Maternity support services
- Theme 6: Cardiovascular prevention
- Theme 7: Stroke care
- Theme 8: Diabetes
- Theme 9: IT to improve patient safety

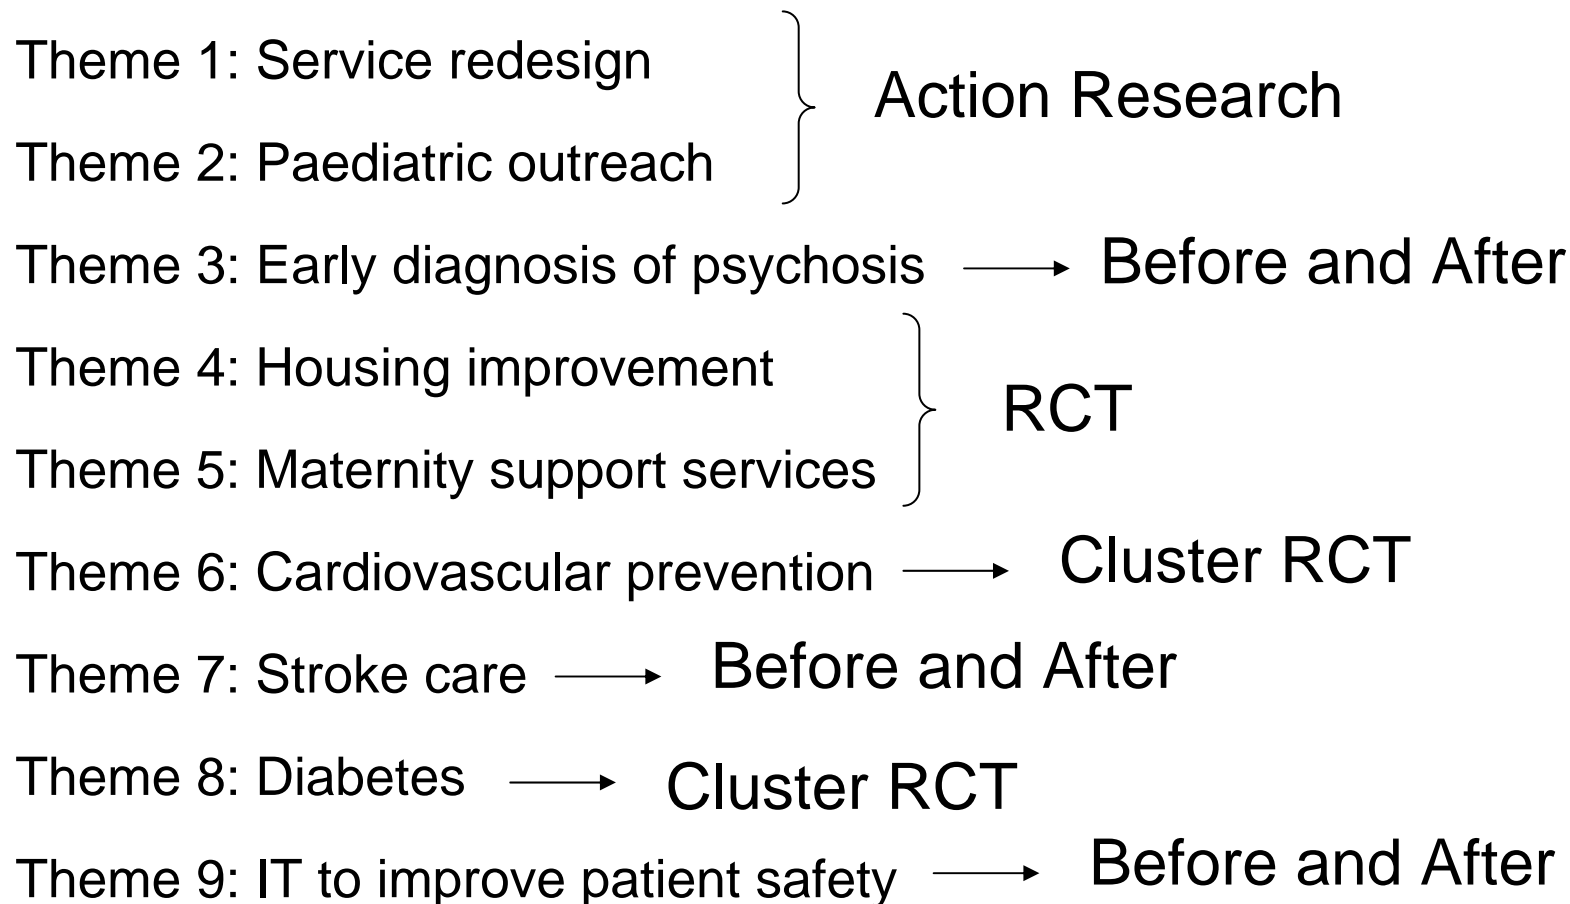

Research Methods
Sociological Themes

Policy Relevance

- Theme 1: Service redesign
- Theme 2: Paediatric outreach
- Theme 3: Early diagnosis of psychosis
- Theme 4: Housing improvement
- Theme 5: Maternity support services
- Theme 6: Cardiovascular prevention
- Theme 7: Stroke care
- Theme 8: Diabetes
- Theme 9: IT to improve patient safety

Methodological Pluralism

www.clahrc-bbc.nihr.ac.uk

30/11/2009